

You must stop trying to give control of the media to the most wealthy people. The airwaves of our country must continue to be open to many different viewpoints. Consolidation will prevent competition rather than encourage it. This proposed "deregulation" is a bad thing for American liberty.

Jane & Don Gilbert